Bloomfield, MI—April 3, 2013— “Transforming Loss” is significantly changing lives, healing souls and offering hope. Judith Burdick’s new documentary will screen at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 10, 2013, at the Royal Oak Main Art Theatre, located at 118 North Main Street in Royal Oak. This special screening is being sponsored by the Ira Kaufman Chapel and the Michigan Funeral Directors Association—District 6. Tickets are $10, which includes a special talk back program and light refreshments. Social workers; $15 per ticket. Questions re: CE credits, please call (248) 988-7266.

This acclaimed film shares the stories of seven survivors of profound loss. The film’s director and writer, psychotherapist Judith Burdick of Bloomfield Hills will introduce the documentary as well as participate in the conversation following the film. David Techner will moderate the discussion joined by Molly Green, Rachel and Michael Kain, three of the film’s ensemble cast members. Their grace and inner strength will show us what we can survive, if tested.

“Judith Burdick, in her documentary “Transforming Loss,” delivers a powerful balance between devastation and hope,” said David Techner, Funeral Director, Ira Kaufman Chapel. “I feel everyone should see this film for one of two reasons--either because you have experienced great loss or you have not.”

Tickets for the screening may be ordered at www.transforminglossdocumentary.com. Tickets may be available at the door, if the event is not sold out. CEUs have been approved for this event equaling 1.5 CE clock hours. Visit us on Facebook:
