

reelmichigan

A NORTHVILLE FILM FESTIVAL

Film Schedule June 29, 2013

Marquis Theater, 135 E. Main Street, Northville, MI 48167

Films begin at 5pm. Tickets are $10 and includes entrance to all films and the After Party at Poole's Bak Bar, 157 E. Main Street. (must be 21 to attend After Party, seating is limited). Tickets are available at the Information Booth during Arts & Acts, at the Northville Art House (248-344-0497) or at the door.

FILMS ARE "UNRATED" BUT YOU MUST BE 18 YEARS OR OLDER TO BE ADMITTED
Visit www.reelmichiganfilmfest.com for more information.

Beginning at 5:00 pm (film schedule subject to change)

I LOVE ROCK N' ROLL, 5 min

Michael G. Petersen

In 2012, thirteen year old Bernadette, Kathryn and her friends are rocking out in a 1950's style malt shop.

THE FOX AND THE RABBIT, 2 min

David Gadzdowicz

A fox and a rabbit meet one day and become friends and together they experience a journey of a lifetime.

STUCK ON ZOOK, 4:20 min

Andrew Wheat

A spaceman crash lands on a distant planet and receives necessary help from a friendly alien with a secret.

DAVID BARR: MIND AND

STEEL, 17:19 min

Paul Sutherland

A documentary on David Barr, a world-renowned sculptor who is "discovered" living in Novi, Michigan.

HOW, 7:30 min

Ty Staples

If you could pick between when you were going to die or how you were going to die, which would you choose?

TAKING BACK THE CITY, 5:17 min

Scott A. Galeski

Billy Mason is tired of his neighborhood being overrun by street gangs and criminals so he is taking back the city, West Side Story style.

I, ZOMBIE, 7:40 min

Dave Kilgore

A "different" kind of zombie film. A seldom seen, deeper look into the hearts of the walking dead.

WHISKEY TANGO, 13:30 min

Scott A. Galeski

This is country music at its not so finest. A day in the life of Downriver Detroit's country sensation, Gavin Boday.

HER SOLEMN CADENCE, 4:35 min

Kimberly Howard

A woman with a secret prepares for what may be her last day alive.

DEATH OF THE WORLDS' LAST

ARTIST, 5:00 min

Victor Pytko

In the not too distant future, new anchor Diane Meyer provides an "up close" report on the passing of the worlds' last artist.

BONE YARD, 12:00 min

Scott A. Galeski

When a family man loses his prized possession he seeks revenge at any cost.

DAMNBULANCE, 17:18 min,

Terence Cover

Two paramedics believe God has told them to save more lives by allowing certain organ donors to die.

FRANK THE ASSASSIN GOES ON A DATE, 16:37 min

Cameron Laventure

In this dark comedy Frank, the bumbling hit man takes his latest assignment: a fancy dinner-date, which could soon turn deadly.

LEMON LANE, 7:04

Victor Pytko and Blake Discher

Two near-retirement police detectives are assigned to stake out neighborhood kids in an attempt to catch a diminutive punk named Marvin. Marvin is suspected of operating a marijuana ring using lemonade stands as a front.

Beginning at 8:30 pm

TRANSFORMING LOSS, 55 min, Judith R. Burdick

This powerful documentary provides first-person accounts of six Michigan families and their remarkable stories of profound loss and transformation.

Thanks to our Reel Michigan donors: Poole's Bak Bar, Andiamo, Steve & Rockys, Starbucks and Grace Street Concierge

For more information, visit our website at www.northvillearts.org, contact the Northville Art House at 248-344-0497 or follow us on Facebook and Twitter.

Special Thanks to our Arts & Acts Sponsors

